

Experience the 27th annual Dublin Irish Festival like never before with a Dub Club membership! Join us August 1, 2 & 3 at the Dublin Irish Festival as it celebrates the expansion of Coffman Park, now offering 38 acres of the best Irish dance, music, food, sports, art and culture to an anticipated crowd of more than 100,000 guests.

This year, enjoy all that the Festival has to offer and more as a member of the Dub Club. Dub Club members enjoy exceptional views of the ScottsMiracle-Gro Dublin Stage from an elevated VIP viewing area and have access to a private bar and restrooms. Members may buy a weekend package or specific day access to the Dub Club and beverage tokens may be purchased in advance.

2014 Dub Club members have the chance to meet The Willis Clan, take photos and get autographs at a members-only VIP event on Saturday, August 2 and Sunday, August 3 at the Dub Club. Specific times for the meet and greet sessions will be determined at a later date.

A Dublin Irish Festival favorite, The Willis Clan is a family of twelve talented musicians and dancers. The family is currently featured as a top contender on NBC's America's Got Talent and has performed 21 times at The Grand Ole Opry. They performed live on The Today Show after being named "America's Modern 'Sound of Music' Family," and they have just released their second CD. Their first won several awards. Members of The Willis Clan are champion Irish Dancers and award-winning musicians who write and perform their original compositions on a variety of national and international stages. Learn more at www.TheWillisClan.com

To be a part of this special meet and greet with The Willis Clan, you must have a 2014 Dub Club ticket for either Saturday or Sunday. A Dublin Irish Festival general admission ticket is required for entry into the Festival.

To reserve your space in the 2014 Dub Club, please visit <http://dublinirishfestival.org/the-dub-club/>.